

Call To Preserve "Sidewinder"

Visit "Sidewinder" on MotoLyrics.com

Your heart is closed just like your mind.
All you know is to blame authority, fight the system and Buck the trends.
When there is nothing left to prove, what will you Believe?
Put down my views and say your mind is free.
How are you so tolerant when you won't tolerate me?

You try to shake my foundation, tear me down just to make
A point.
You only prove what I've said all along, this is the Truth that you cannot change.

Put down my beliefs, say your mind is free.
How are you so tolerant when you won't tolerate me?
