"The Dive"

When we were younger, we would pray for this Give our hearts for a love we can't resist
Prepare ourselves for the long road

Wait, don't blink, 'cause we're older now
Ever wonder how it all turned out?
With hopes held high, we take the dive

Like the first time I saw your eyes
I hope it's the last time we say goodbye
Wherever tomorrow's roads may lead you
I hope the happiness it brings you
Is everything you wanted to find
And you change your mind

When we were young, we had it all planned out
Pack our bags, and we'd leave this town
We'd trace our way down the coastline

Every day is a brand new day to turn this life around
And do what we want to, be who we want to

They say be patient and wait for a sign
But some people wait for a lifetime

Like the first time I saw your eyes
I hope it's the last time we say goodbye
Wherever tomorrow's roads may lead you
I hope the happiness it brings you
Is everything you wanted to find
And you change your mind

What if it's the first, what if it's the last?
What if it's everything we have, everything we're holding inside?

And when you sleep at night
I hope you wake to find
Every time feels just like the first time

Like the first time I saw your eyes

I hope it's the last time we say goodbye
Wherever tomorrow's roads may lead you
I hope the happiness it brings you
Is everything you wanted to find
And you change your mind

Like the first time I saw your eyes
I hope it's the last time we say goodbye
