Save us a page in the history books
Nights and friends like theses
Are a part of us
As far as I can recall
We start it out,
Jump in the backseat,
Friday night
Flip cup on 3rd street
We knew these nights would never end
Since the day it all began

Boys will be boys
So sing loud and clear
And I promise you
That all we need is here
Tear up this town from the ground up
Let our story be told
When this chapter comes to an end
Turn the page and set it off again

Our head in the clouds, feet on the ground
A picture perfect escape
You've put stars in our eyes
Now we can't wait to show you

Boys will be boys
So sing loud and clear
And I promise you
That all we need is here
Tear up this town from the ground up
Let our story be told
When this chapter comes to an end
Turn the page and set it off again

Give it up if you know that feeling
And how it takes your breath away

Boys will be boys
So sing loud and clear
Boys will be boys

Give it up if you know that feeling

And how it takes your breath away
Live it up because this night is worth living
We may never feel this way again
