Voices in my head, touching on my skin.
Chills run down my back, no oxygen.
Now!

How the hell do I get, my self out of this.
I want you out, for good.
I see your body, but don't show your Face. My heart is still beating is this
My time and place? Christ can you, help me get Through this? There is a better way out.
Save me from this demon.

I see you killing, you kill the innocent.
My heart is still beating, because I'm
Heaven sent.
I see you killing, you kill the innocent.

My heart is still beating, because I'm
Heaven sent.

This couldnt get any worse, I want you out
Of my life. This couldnt get any worse, I Want you out of my life. This couldnt be any
Worse, get the fuck out of life.
Christ can you, help me through this? There
Is a better way out. Save me from this demon.

Now!
Now
Yeah

I'll defeat you in the end. I will meet you
Once again, in hell.
