Take a step back! Take a bow,
To the queen, the queen,
The queen!

This couldnt be another exit.
Another way to hide everything.
I can't find another way out.
Just walk away, please just walk
Away, just walk away, please
Just walk away.

I couldnt, I couldnt explain the words
That came out of your mouth.
I remember all the good times we shared
Together. Please come home, please come
Home.

Take back every word you said, the vine
Of lies of you, you fed me then. I want

You out, the ink is draining out.(I can't get Over you, this seems like it's bothering you.)

The vine of lies tangled in your head, they'll
Bring you dreams.
Dreams!
Dreams!

Why can't you tell the truth for once?!
I couldnt, I couldnt explain the words that came
Out of your mouth. I remember all the good
Times we shared together. Please come home, please
Come home. Please come home, please come
Home.I want you home.
