

Calling All Sirens "Deceiver"

I have come down to please my people
I arise, to my throne where I'll create my
Demise to strike fear in all your eyes.
I am not a god of your kind
You won't see through my virulent lies
So bow down to me for I am
The devil in disguise.
It's time to cherish what we know
For the better times, and for the worse.
Oh my god will we breathe again (again)?
All my people will fucking die
Deceiver is what they cry.
All my people will fucking die

DECIEVER

Get down on your knees
Bow down to the king.
We won't take this anymore
You're unworthy for this world
We will bring you down to our feet
You're a useless fucking king

We will fight against you (x2)
At the end you will bow
Bow down to me.

USELESS FUCKING KING.

Now look who's laughing
This is the end of your days
As the king who's people
Turned against him.
