12, 11, 10, 9

And so, in my house I've built a shrine

8, 7, 6, 5

But I have dreamt he's still alive

4, 3, 2, 1

In the lands of light his voice is sung

The time is right for us to go

Bloom the night in all her darkness

Daphne froze in her white night gown

Cotton be around your body

The sea is calling me down

The sea is calling me down

Bloom the night in all her darkness

Daphne froze on the glass abyss

Years of tears had salt her body

And she cried nevermore

And she cried nevermore

1, 2, 3, 4

For you, my love, I'll wait no more

5, 6, 7, 8

Lay your kisses to rest at the garden gates

9, 10, 11, 12

Because I've got to save myself

The time is right for you to go
