Baby let your hair down.
It's time to get enchanted.
You're a deep sea diver.
Tides are turning in your favour.

You came running out of the dark,
With the tears in your eyes.
And the mouth of the moon swore to me,
religion
we embark.

Baby let your head fall back and love like you never.
This is such a good thing
on your turn,
Baby let your scream curl.
(Baby let your scream curl)

You said you've been taken over
By a deeper animal.
You've been changed.
What's gone up around you
is a different skin.
You thought I wouldn't know your face.
Baby if you cant see
I know that I can hear you shout.
And darling if you can't see
I you know that I can hear you shout
