"Chariots Of Fire"

The damned earth commot under starspangled sky
As the sound of destruction increase Tongues of red fire snatch black clouds above and unite with the cold Northern breeze A massive veil of flames raise high over the mountains and burning clouds fill up the sky Along vast hills liquid fire brim over Tonight Hell's jaws open wide
Over the skyline
Approaching at high speed

Objects of flames reaching higher Crossing the sky at Hell's pace comes a thousand Chariots of Fire...
Chariots of fire emerge Spreading pure hell on earth as they pass over water and land
All living to ashes turn
All creatures alive they burn
They die as they lay and stand Vast hills on fire
Thick smoke dark sight
Ashes and death everywhere

Covered with ashes the bleak world lies dead as the chariots emerge the poisoned air
Over the skyline
Approaching at high speed
Objects of flames reaching higher
Crossing the sky at Hell's pace
comes a thousand Chariots of Fire...
