There's a part of your soul
Gives me a feeling so wonderful
Streaming through my heart
You're bringing me out of the dark

Words cannot explain
I'm all out of complaints
I'm so happy and warm with you

Do you feel what I'm feeling
How I just let go and open up to you, Oo Oo Oo Oo Oo
I can't control this feeling
I'm in love with everything you do
Everything you do
Yeah yeah yeah

What's happening to us
It all seems like such a rush
You were here and then you disappeared
Years pass me by
I'm learning how to cry
My eyes are filled with tears for you

We all make mistakes
But it's my heart you take
I survived through the lies
Now I'm strong and wise
Never again will I cry over you

Do you feel what I'm feeling
How I just let go and open up to you
Unfair is the way you treated me, Oo Oo Oo Oo Oo
Somehow I'm still in love
With everything you do
Oo Oo Oo
Everything you do...
