Cast in your ocean, I drown in your eyes
Mystified, hypnotized, By the beauty of your sight

Here I am, hold my hand,
Feel the light of the Son
Make the leaves, warm the breeze
And a flower has begun

Raindrops in your garden are falling
Echoing - love - so - pure,
Simply said, the rain keeps needing, you

Test of the will, sends, a chill through my soul
So believe, and you'll see
My Love for you unfold

I am yours, no remorse,
For the course I have chosen
So I swear, that tonight
I pledge to you my life,

Angels in the garden are calling
Echoing - words - so - true
Simply said this rain keeps wanting you.

Cast in your ocean, I drown in your eyes
Mystified, glorified
By the beauty of your sight

Here I am, hold my hand,
Feel the warmth of the Son
Make our hearts, stop and start
Till the two beats sync as one

Raindrops in your garden are falling
Echoing - love - so - true
Simply said the rain keeps needing Simply said this rain keeps wanting
Simply said my rain keeps loving you
