Why, why do you love her
When she doesn't even bother
To pay attention to you

So go, go on and live your own life
I've tried to tell you a million times
Your true love is standing right in front of you

But it doesn't seem to matter
It doesn't even phase you
What do you expect me to do
I can't stand here forever

Why can't you understand the pain I'm going through
Why can't you just let me be me without you
It makes it so hard to live my life
You don't know what you put me through

You always make everything about you
You never think about me do you
And my feelings never cross your mind

Because it's never seemed to matter
It's never even phased you
What do you expect me to do
I can't stand here forever

Why do I let myself
Be hurt by you
I need to move on
Because this I just can't do

Why can't you understand the pain I'm going through
Why can't you just let me be me without you
It makes it so hard to live my life
Having your face on my mind all the time
I really don't know what else to do
You don't know what you put me through
