(Instrumental)

Weeks of monotony filled his life with an opposite extreme. No

Longer pursued by opportunists who disguised themselves with

Good intentions, his body regained strength. The government

Arranged his back-pay. The mass of generation-removed

Relatives ceased their dutiful visits and eventually no one came

To see the hero who had fought the longest war.

For his 50th birthday, the nursing staff organised a small

Party. To make him feel at home, the festive cake has been

Decorated in the form of a tropical island. Nude was visibly

Moved by the occasion and yet he seemed strangely distracted.

They thought it best to leave him alone.
