Every little thing you do
Makes me smile
And if I had my way, baby
I'd drive you up the wall
I'd take you through the pages
One by one
I don't wanna get too serious
I just like having fun
Yeah, yeah
I just like having fun
Oh, sugar
I'm living the single, single, single
Life
The single, single, single
Life
Now I don't want anybody
I don't have nothing to hide
To get the wrong idea about me
I want the world to see
Just like a car I'll drive you
Out of your mind
It's always the first step
In us having a good time

Oh, oh, oh, sugar

I'm living the single, single, single

Life

Single, single, single

Life

Single guys clap your hands

Yeah

Oh, sugar

Single ladies clap your hands

Feels so good

And it feels so good

Feels so good

I'm living the single, single, single

Life (Oh, sugar)

Single, single, single

Life

Single, single, single

Life

Single, single, single

Life

Single, single, single
