You said you're free, for me that says it all.

You're free to push me and I'm free to fall

So if we weaken we can call it stress,

You've got my trust I've got your home address.

And not the only chance that we can take,

Is the chance that someone else won't make it all come true.

We're making tracks, they show our touch and go,

But now it's touch and come and you should know,

But then four years won't mean that much to me,

When I've been smothered in the sympathy you bleed.

Just close your eyes again

Until these things get better

You're never far away

But we could send letters

While you were gone I reached another town,

They couldn't help me but they showed me 'round.

And now I've seen what you can't understand,

I'd try to lead you, but I'd crush your hand.

Because the people in the village know, it doesn't matter

Where you choose to go the end's the same.

I found some blood I wasn't meant to find

I found some feelings that we'd left behind

But then some blood won't mean that much to me

When I've been smothered in the sympathy you bleed.

chorus

I found some blood I wasn't meant to find

I found some feelings that we'd left behind

But then some blood won't mean that much to me

When I've been smothered in the sympathy you bleed.
