"Shine For Me"

Would you shine a little bit brighter
Climb a little bit higher
Tell me would you shine for me
Would you hope a little bit longer
Sing a little bit louder
Tell me would you shine for me
Yeah

If one day you're awake to see
The colours fade from the trees
I hope you find a brush
Paint a road back to me
And if one day you're afraid to fight
Among the weak and helpless cries
I'll help you take a stand to defend what is right

And don't look back, never never look back
Don't look back, never never look back
Look back

Would you shine a little bit brighter
Climb a little bit higher
Tell me would you shine for me
Would you hope a little bit longer
Sing a little bit louder
Tell me would you shine for me

So if one day you're filled with tears
From aching hearts and passing years
I hope this simple rhyme will somehow make you strong
Then one day you'll hear a song
With a melody you can sing along
And I know you'll find the words to carry on

Would you shine a little bit brighter
Climb a little bit higher
Tell me would you shine for me
Would you hope a little bit longer
Sing a little bit louder
Tell me would you shine for me

And don't look back, never never look back
And don't look back, never never look back
Don't look back, never never look back
Don't look back, never never look back
Look back

Would you shine a little bit brighter
Climb a little bit higher
Tell me would you shine for me
Would you hope a little bit longer
Sing a little bit louder
Tell me would you shine for me
[x3]
Yeah
