I tried to run, I tried to fight You
But I'm done, I'm giving up
I've learned to trust You, Your love

Now I'm singing

Can You take over, take over
Can You take over me
I've been here over and over again
Here on my knees

I'm only closer and closer
To where I wanna be
When You take over, take over
Can You take over me

I tried before to let go
And I just hold on more, amazing Lord
I need the strength to let go and be Yours

So now I'm singing

Can You take over, take over
Can You take over me
I've been here over and over again
Here on my knees

I'm only closer and closer
To where I wanna be
When You take over, take over
Can You take over me

I surrender all I have
And I surrender all I am
As I remember what
You've done to set me free

I just wanna sing

Can You take over, take over
Can You take over me
I've been here over and over again

Here on my knees

I'm only closer and closer
To where I wanna be
When You take over, take over
Can You take over me

Can You take over, take over
Can You take over me
I've been here over and over again
Here on my knees

I'm only closer and closer
To where I wanna be
When You take over, take over
Can You take over me

Take over me
Take over me
