I can survive this world
Iâ€™ve found another place
I breathe the snow that you hate

The road will be so long
Iâ€™ll meet a polar bear
Some penguins and loneliness
Under a sky with no stars
Iâ€™m dreaming

No cars, no tech
I hear the sound of waterfalls
Snow falling from some trees
I walk along the frozen river
Towards the point of no return
Under a sky with no stars
Iâ€™m dreaming

Itâ€™s not too late

Iâ€™m keeping all my dreams alive
I need to escape from you and from my town again
From my friends again
From the new again

Itâ€™s the colour of the shame
Itâ€™s the new land iâ€™ve found out
Itâ€™s so hard going through
Itâ€™s the mirror of my eyes

Itâ€™s a pleasure over god
Itâ€™s my pillow underneath
Itâ€™s so hard going through
But i want to stay alone
Under a sky with no stars
