You and i down the star system gear up in the sky it's full of shines tenderness no one else sharing this wonder, i beg you now

let me see the picture in your pocket
to space around

cool breath, we're polar bears searching for their star slow kiss, we're floating away through the atmosphere

the place where dreams come true as i see it's venus in your eyes
