"Bring Me Your Blood"

Visit "Bring Me Your Blood" on MotoLyrics.com

I was betrayed by the greed of my sons
They took away my last drop of blood

I felt as it death embraced me again
I was so weak that I could not feel the pain

When I find you I'll fulfill my revenge
I gave you your life and you tried to kill mine

Bring me your blood.
I need the ancient masters,
So bring me your blood.
Then I'll be strong again,
So bring me your blood.

I looked throughout the world, as if looking for ghosts
I will show them how cold is revenge
I tried to chase but I feel like the pray
Hope is away from me, I feel so confused

There is a punishment for treason
For them it's just a game without rules, without rules

Bring me your blood.
I need the ancient masters,
So bring me your blood.
Then I'll be strong again,
So bring me your blood.

There is a thorn in my heart
