Dark, no moon
Dark, moon

The moon sheds light when all is dark
The dog's reaction is to bark
Is that the moon's fault?
Tell me true

'Tis the dog's nature
So to do
The moonlight fills all heaven with mirth

The dog's a vapor
Belched by earth
The dog's a vapor
Belched by earth

Dark, dark, oh
There's something in you
'Tis the dog's nature
So to do
The moonlight fills all heaven with mirth

The dog's a vapor
There's something in you, oh, you

Belched by earth
The dog's a vapor
The dog's a vapor
Belched by earth, oh

There's something in you, in you, in you, in you
In you, in you, in you, you, in you
You, in you, you, in you, you, in you
You, in you, you, in you, you, in you, you, in you, you,
oh
