Children, children single file,
Children, children single file.

Don't make noise, laugh or smile,
Don't misbehave or crack a smile.

We can't have them running wild,
No we can't have them running wild.

So children, children single file,
Children, children single file.

Can't decide it's them or me
Who's the real enemy.

Just another classroom,
Soon to be a suicide home.

Children, children, take your pills,
Children, children, take your pills.

Don't misbehave and just sit still
Well soon enough you'll get your fill.
We can't have them acting ill,
No, we can't have them acting ill.

So children, children take your pills.
Children, children take your pills.

Can't decide it's them or me
Who's the real enemy.

Just another classroom,
Soon to be a suicide home.

Chorus:

Don't trust the teachers,
They all look the same.

And what they read you,
They all look the same.

Don't trust the leaders,
They all look the same.

And what they feed you,
They all look the same
