Up the stairs
Behind the door
She was sitting there crying
She smashed all the glasses on the mirror
Which was shattered all across the room?

She screamed so loud
In case she was laughing
And now there's no more reason for her to cry
It was so late
It was 4 a.m.

I know, I know, I know, I know
He will never hurt you again
I know, I know, I know, I know
He will never hurt you again

Up the stairs
By the bed
There was a dead man waiting
Waiting for someone to find him out
And bury him deep down the ground

He looked so scared
But now he's grateful
In the other side of town
A car drives fast
Hard to tell the fear of happiness

I know, I know, I know, I know
He will never hurt you again
I know, I know, I know, I know
He will never hurt you again

Rat is dead, rat is dead
Rat is dead, rat is dead
Rat is dead!

Up the stairs
Behind the door
She was sitting there crying

She smashed all the glasses on the mirror
Which was shattered all across the room?

She screamed so loud
In case she was laughing
And now there's no more reason for her to cry
It was so late
It was 4 a.m.

I know, I know, I know, I know
He will never hurt you again
I know, I know, I know, I know
He will never hurt you again
I know, I know, I know, I know
He will never hurt you again
I know, I know, I know, I know
He will never hurt you again, girl
