hey coffee eyes. you got me coughin' up my cookie heart. makin' promises to myself. promises like seeds of everything i could be. hey ringwald haze. we're using bruises to loosely in a haste to lose me. and i've given all i could give. we live in quick flips, slips, tips, and taps to snap us outta these statue traps. and i've taken all i could take. hey ring walled haze. we're using judo like bruce lee in a haste to bruise me. and i've given all i could give. i've taken all i could take. i've pushed all that i could push and pulled all that i could pull. thin kids get a skinny neck hex, heads hang heavy.
and kitty cat, i'm feelin' heavy. museum mouth, museum mouth, my how you've misused me.
