It's was one in a million was the chance of a lifetime,
yeah
Anybody could be the one to go all the way, oh yeah

Didn't think it was possible, now I know we can make it if we just believe, believe in our dream, yeah i yeah.

All for one and one for all
I never tought that I would be the choosen one
All for one and one for all
we reach our gold
all for one and one for all

Maybe this is my destiny it's the day I've been waiting for, yeah I would give you the best of me, that's all I can do, oh
yeah

From a dream to reality, yeah just to make it to go, it's seam so far away but now we can say

All for one and one for all

I never tought that I would be the choosen one
All for one and one for all
we reach our gold

And now we're end this thing together and hopefully we're right by your side

All for one and one for all
I never tought that I would be the choosen one wo'o'wo'o
All for one and one for all
I never tought that I would be the choosen one
All for one and one for all
we reach our gold

All for one and one for all
I never thought that I would be the chosen one
All for one and one for all
we reach our gold
all for one and one for all (x3)
