Turn the pages of a broken dream
Smiling faces have they ever seen
And empty hallways will they ever end
The fool again
And masquerading in a Hyper dream
(Such a sad affair)
Fading shadows talk of their machine
Through the haze another cigarette
So much to say and to forget
Chorus:
And inside a broken dream I cried
Is love the reason why
And inside a broken dream I stared
At love that is not there
Life begins with your head in the dark
(Looking out looking in)
The chord of life reveals the final spark
It takes you nowhere
And nowhere takes you back again
Repeat chorus twice.
