I heard a rumour from a friend
And another one said
It was impossible to push your feelings away
I heard it took a lifetime
For someone to forget a love
But she did yes she did forget it
At last

I need a friend
I need you
I need a friend
I need you
I need a friend to take me home again
I need you to make it true
They said it could be better
If I let my love be a part of me

To let in, to be brave without games
Or lies
But what if everything that I give to you
Make you scared, make you leave will I ever dare to Love again
I need a friend
I need you
I need a friend
I need you
I need a friend to take me home again
I need you to make it true

I need a friend
I need you
I need a friend
I need you
I need a friend
I need you
