It's a teenage dream to seventeen

And to find you're all wrapped up in love

And I found that you made a dream come true

Now I do believe in what I say

You've got to give a little love take a little love

Be prepared to forsake a little love

And when the sun comes shining through

We'll know what to do

Give a little love take a little love

Be prepared to forsake a little love

And when the sun comes shining through

We'll know, what to do

And when I walk with you there is just we two

And the world goes by but I just don't care

And I know one day that I'll find the way

To be safe and sound within your heart

So until I do I'm gonna give a little love take a little love,...
