The first scene was on the bathtub ring
And then out through the window
Zoom...
A little boy cutting out paper dolls singing ring around The rosey a rose jumped over a pansy into a mud puddle
With the sun in it Pan...
To the bathroom, the wall paper decorated with Christmas
Ornament stars repugnantly cheery to the degree of Nostalgic depression
A woman begins to disrobe
Zoom...
In to the unkempt shabby underarm and large perspiration
Tears on the enormous lit up breasts one dark 'n one light
Light nearest the window, dark nearest the basin above an Inadequate light fixture below the latter breast Pan...
The tub ring
Zoom...
To the ring on the finger obvious zen intent one ornament
Began to move unnoticed by the near nud woman who Now nude 'n situated in the tub cringed at the ring Added hot water relaxed at this mixture pleased, splashed,
Picked, sneezed, winked, wheezed, flatulated, bubbles popped
The tub returned to normal
The star began to rotate much like the lid of A large mouth jar
Jerky 'n very human being removed from this of course
And entirely on its own
THis obviously an example of its picturesque physical Apperance, attitude and formation
Alright then
The star recovered after the autopsy upon close analyzation

Tipped the scales at 10,000 lbs. and was matched with

A metal very much like lead as we know it here

Recovered in a mission that successfully returned from

Venus in the late fall of 1975

The star had dropped and lodged just under the woman' armpit

Only one point was visible
