Couldn't ask for a better day, two by two
To the ring to the right point of view
We each retreat to the corner that's defined by you
To the ring to the right point of...

Chorus:

Lonely Reign
She is the Boxer, she knows
When and where to strike
He is the Boxer, he knows,
No peaceful sleep tonight

Caught the downfall of Jack and Jill, Ryan too
(He did not approve of Callie's mood)
Doctor Mike was 'fight or flight' at Dundrum School
To the ring to the right point of...

No return. No passion left to burn.
The Boxers grow weary.
Their eyesight...blurry blurred.

Chorus

All's quiet on the front. Smokey room.
Boxer standing tall, peering through
Finding no one left to fight
What to do?
To the ring to the right point of view...

Chorus
