Everyone tries to hard to keep me down spit on my dreams
crash to the ground
I've got a voice and it will be heard sticks and stones
I'm not hurt by words

You threaten me
with threats of conformity Challenge me
With false beliefs
When the smoke clears You'll see me grin
A testament
A prophecy

Look in your mirror
What do you see Becoming so clear
looking down on me

You gotta good idea
Of what I should be Well I don't need my Mind made up for me

Look in the mirror
What do you see
Your hollow words
have no effect on me

I wont let you beat me into the ground.
I will endure.
