Here we go again
Back to the start
And if you really
Don't have the heart
Well, you can call it off
But you might call
It energy stealing

When i think of long times ago
Didn't know which way to go
Now i don't know what i know
Tryin' to get back
To what i was feelin'

Though
We have been here before
It still looks
Different than before
My door bounced
Into the zulu dam in 1944
And it lead to the end
Of the second world war

So you think
You are some superstar
Have to earn it to get so far
And if it's not up to power
You have to give
It a little feelin'

Though
We have been here before
It still looks
Different than before
My door bounced
Into the zulu dam in 1944
And it lead to the end
Of the second world war

Here we go again
Back to the start
Put it back

Where it's come apart
Sayin' you can call it off
But you might call
It regard feelin'

Though
We have been here before
It still looks
Different than before
My door bounced
Into the zulu dam in 1944
And it lead to the end
Of the second world war

Though
We have been here before
It still looks
Different than before
My door bounced
Into the zulu dam in 1944
And it lead to the end

Think we've been here before
