Beware the Beijing massive
And sandal men with sacks
Though you've gone all organic
Your phone's still being tapped
And all those craven idols
In detention, they're fried
Think I'm being followed
And taken for a ride

He took a picture of my eye
And he lied and lied
Told me what might happen
No hits yet but
There's nowhere to hide
Took a picture of my eye
And he tried and tried
Tried to make me nervous
And to keep us terrified

If you're worry 'bout house prices
If they drop the dirty bomb
At least you've got an iPod
And you rip the bird flu song
Worry 'bout my children
Court orders apply
Still I'm getting nervous
Here comes the FBI

He took a picture of my eye
And he lied and lied
Told me what might happen
No hits yet but
There's nowhere to hide
Took a picture of my eye
And he tried and tried
Tried to make me nervous
And to keep us terrified

Here comes the bride
Here comes the bride

She's under the flight path

And she's terrified
Locked up in her bedroom
Afraid to go outside
All this morbid fascination
To control
And keep us terrified

He took a picture of my eye
And he lied and lied
No hits yet but

Panic's at the pump
'Cause we're running out of juice
Butterflies and oligarchs
To their own ends and use
Dig a trench on the riverbank
To turn back the tide
On a hiding to nothing
When our two worlds collide

He took a picture of my eye
No hits yet but

Here comes the bride

She's under the flight path
Afraid to go outside
To control

They're just trying
They're just trying
To keep us terrified

It's designed
To keep us terrified
To keep us terrified
To keep us terrified
To keep us terrified

They keep us terrified
