It don't matter
Whatever you think
Because I loved you
It don't matter
Whatever I did
Because I loved you
I didn't mind you
Slammed the door
In my face
Because I loved you
I didn't mind
When you smashed up
My place
Because I loved you

Yeah, that's right
I made mistakes
But I loved you
But sometimes
That's what it takes
Because I loved you

It don't matter
Whatever I did
Because I loved you
It don't matter
Heaven forbid
Because I loved you
I didn't mind you
Slammed door
In my face
Because I loved you
I didn't mind
When you trashed up
My place
Because I loved you

So I've no regrets
But I won't forget
I loved you

I wanna shout it

From the rooftops
Announce it through a PA
(I loved you)
I wanna paint it
On your doorstep
Put it on
Your breakfast tray
(I loved you)
I'm gonna hire a plane
And write it in the air
(I loved you)
But heaven forbid
That you think
That I may care
(I loved you)

So I've no regrets
But I won't forget
I loved you

Ah, I loved you
Ah, I loved you

So I've no regrets
But I won't forget
I loved you

Wohoh

Yeah, that's right
I made mistakes
But I loved you
But sometimes
That's what it takes
Because I loved you

So I've no regrets
But I won't forget
I loved you

Because I loved you
