These dreams have killed me for too long.
I stare, knowing that I'm wrong.
A guy like me could never amount to a girl like you,
Your eyes are a beautiful shade of blue.

Chorus- Your eyes are the beauty that I see in my dreams x2

You said the water tasted different,
Promised you'd be out for hours
So I go to work and I get what I desire,
You think your right,
But your too blind

Chorus

That beauty that's in my dreams, will take me away.

Don't take it personal, I'll cherish these eyes with all I have.

Don't take it personal I'll cherish these eyes with all I have.

I swear with all I have.

Don't take it personal, it's not your life.

Your eyes
Your eyes
Your eyes, are mine.
