Turn this way, don't look anywhere else, darling
It'd be bad if you weren't completely by my side
Although you show courage, you've got it backwards
A maiden's heart is fragile and trying

If we get separated by any distance
I'll come after you

I'm like a jasmine flower, right?
You want to turn towards my strong fragrance
I love you more than anyone
So look at only me, okay?

If it's for love, you'll get stronger, darling
So it's true, I'll always be your cute kid
Although there are some bad feelings in life
No one will ever give up on a maiden's heart

Throughout all of the pain
We're invincible

I'm clumsy around you
Protect only me
A magical love only for us
We should keep that our secret

I'm like a jasmine flower, right?
You want to turn towards my strong fragrance
I love you more than anyone
So look at only me, okay?
