"I am a dreamer...

Soul believer...

Who says a girl can't live on dreams?
Cause when I dream a dream then I atop the world
The busy day is over,
On my way home...
That's where I escape it all

A zoom like a wind through that door,
My feet start lifting off the floor,
Now I'm in a world of make believe

I am a dreamer,
Soul believer,
What goes in is what comes out
It's all a matter of the heart
Love is for dreamers,
Soul believers

All that's mystical
A wind that blows is magic enough for me

Glad to know,
Glad to know,
All my dreams are back now"
