I swear, I can't stand this place and whats becoming of me the longer i have to stay.
I want to think all unthinkable things and say what I shouldn't say I need a change

With that said, I'm leaving today I got some concrete ideas and they've been paving my way towards all the downtowns and urban decay theres so much life in these bricks theres so much buildings can say a new experienced me

will be coming back on rusted wheels and bloody knees

a call to arms
from server to soldiers whose got no one to count on faceless and scarred
we don't know where we're going we forgot where we came from i thought that there was blood left in this stone turns out that i was wrong i hope to find a place that feels like home with a heightened sense of strength and the strongest sense of sound

we don't know where we're going

a new experienced me (a new experienced me)
will be coming back on rusted wheels and bloody knees

we don't know where we're going
