If our world falls down tomorrow
You be sure I'll be there with a net
To catch the pieces falling
And I was always there

And I was always there
I was always there
But you just never knew where

Ay oh, ay oh, I hope you weren't waiting long
I hope this night makes up for time lost
Ay oh, ay oh, feels like I met you years ago
And we're picking up right where we left off

I've considered what it'd be like
If the ocean poured in from both of the coasts
And we set sail to find out
Just where our boat would go

But I don't think that I'd want to know
'Cuz it would just make time
So I can see your smile

With our brand new life in tow

Ay oh, ay oh, I hope you weren't waiting long
I hope this night makes up for time lost
Ay oh, ay oh, feels like I met you years ago

And if I'm on the road for another thousand years or so
I hope you know a part of me is at home
Not trading brick for straw in the house I built around my heart
So when you came with me so tough

No huff and puff could dismantle us
No huff and puff could dismantle us

Ay oh, ay oh, I hope you weren't waiting long
I hope this night makes up for time lost

Ay oh, ay oh, feels like I met you years ago
