I'm always gonna stand alone
When I never know what to say
When I never know how to act
'Cause whenever I get this way

And it's a shame and a stupid dream
And it made you turn away
And to give in I'm so much it's better this way
And I know it's hard to hurt

When your tryin' to get her
It's come a drug
And I know it's hard to see where we are together
It's almost time

I love to see you laugh out loud
'Cause it makes me think we had a chance
I know we never had a song
And we never cared enough to dance

It seemed like a stupid dream
To think we'd fall in love someday
To give in I'm so much it's better this way
And I know it's hard to run when you are tied together

Its' come undone
And I know it's hard to sing when we aren't together
It's almost done
And I know it's hard to run when you are tied together

It's come undone
And I know it's hard to sing
When we aren't together it's almost done
