"Summer Without You"

I look around and you're still gone
It's been such a long time
And with those stolen moments
Leads me to the happiness I find
I will move on to that dream that we share
Even though you are gone
My love
I still know
I'll miss these summer days without you
When the wind blows, I hear your voice
Everywhere I see your face
These summer days won't be the same without you
Your eyes, Your touch, You mean so much
Please hear me when I say
I love you, I need you
Please come on home to me
This summer day...
I love you, I need you
Please come on home to me
This summer day...
