One more time
Just a little thing they call they poor man blues
I've been a working in a cotton field way down south Choppin and a pickin' lord and followin' the plow Tryin to make a livin' on the poor hard ground
I asked for a loan but the boss turned me down
But I'll keep on a workin' cause a can't get down Another load of Cotton' gotta take into town I'll take my little money and buy a new par' shoes
I got a woman sittin home humming the poor boy blues
She goes ahummmmmmmmmmmmmmmmm ahummmmmmmmmmm Poor old soul she goes ahummmmmmmmmmm mmmm mmmm
Just a little thing they call the poor boys blues

I got in debt to the bank and now I can't move on I'll stay in the field til the last bo's gone
I got one old mule, that I recon' is my own They might keep me down but I'll keep humming my song
I'll go ammmmmmmmmmmmmmmmm ahummmm mmmmm
one more time ammmmmmm mmmmmmmmm aummm mmmmmm

Just a little thing they call the poor boys blues

Ah they say the great society goin' a change a few things
A farmer like me I wonder what it's goin'a bring I don't pay taxes I say it with a smile Cause I ain't never made enough in my life to file But I'll keep on a workin' til the lord calls me home That's when I'll know if I've done wrong
I keep on a humming let everybody sue
The Poor national anthem called the Poor blues I go ammmmmmmmm ammmmmmmmmmm
mmmmmm
one more time ammmmmmmmmmm ammmmmmmmm
Just a little thing they call the poor boys blues ammmmmmmmm mmmmmmm ammmmmmmmm
One more time mmmmmmmmm fade out
