Why did you, why did you, did you go, I'll never know

Oh girl, I wonder if I'm out of your mind are you over me

It hurts I can't describe this feeling inside
I remember the times that when we were never once a moment apart

You were the only one who captured my heart
Where did it go wrong girl

Why did you leave in September thinking that Summer
had gone

Now it's a lonely November and now that my Summer has gone

I'm trying not to think of your smile but it is always there

I find that I'm lonely just for a while
moment apart

You were the only one who captured my heart
Where did it go wrong girl

Why did you leave in September thinking that Summer
had gone

Why did you leave me alone
Now it's a lonely November and now that my Summer
has gone

Now you'll never know how I feel I'm here for you if only you could read my mind You'll always be mine, mine, you'll never know
Why did you, why did you, did you go, I'll never know
You will always be someone that I'll remember Now I know it is time to move on, now I know
