There are so many reasons that I find to run to you
Coz there's so little loving in my life, now I am away
And thinking about it I want things back how they used to be

There is no way around it, nothing good comes easily
So much between us and we both know that it's wrong
So I keep on waiting till I am back where I belong

Chorus

So here I am all by myself thinking of you nobody else
There is a feeling inside and as hard as I try it just won't go away

Are you finding it hard it all on your own
Having to face each night alone
Knowing you are the one with the love that I need
And I miss you more each day

So many feelings emotions running away with me
Cos it's you that I believe in and I love this one so deep
So much between us and we both know that it's wrong
Now I keep on waiting till I am back where I belong
Back where I belong

Chorus

So here I am all by myself thinking of you nobody else
There is a feeling inside and as hard as I try it just
won't go away

Are you finding it hard it all on your own
Having to face each night alone
Knowing you are the one with the love that I need
And I miss you more each day

So I keep on waiting till I am back where I belong
Back where I belong

Chorus to fade

So here I am all by myself thinking of you nobody else
There is a feeling inside and as hard as I try it just
won't go away

Are you finding it hard it all on your own
Having to face each night alone
Knowing you are the one with the love that I need

And I miss you more each day...
