Baby, you're a rich man now
Baby, you're a rich man now
Baby, you're a rich man now

Tuesday morning waiting for the train
To come and take me home again
Another day will end (oh, oh, oh)

I wish I hadn't left you
I wish I never met you
I wish I knew before the things that I know
Things that I know now

And you're so like silver
Yes, you glow like gold
And I can't let go

[Chorus]
Baby, you're a rich man now
Baby, you're a rich man now
Baby, you're a rich man now

And if I had a second chance
Then maybe I could lose my dignity
You know that's hard for me (oh, oh, oh)

I wish I hadn't found out
'Cause only lovers fall out
And baby, I'd be better off instead of here without

And you're so...
And I waited here for you, you know
And I can't let go

Baby, you're a rich man now
Baby, you're a rich man now
Baby, you're a rich man now

[Music]

Black and white

Wrong and right at the same time
Black and white
Wrong and right at the same time
Black and white
Wrong and right at the same time

I wish I hadn't left you
I wish I never met you
'Cause baby, I could go without instead of feeling poorâ€¦!

(Baby, you're a rich man now)
Instead of needing moreâ€¦!
(Baby, you're a rich man now)
Instead of feeling poorâ€¦!
(Baby, you're a rich man now)
Instead of needing

Baby, you're a rich man now
Baby, you're a rich man now
Baby, you're a rich man now
Baby, you're a rich man now
Baby, you're a rich man now
Baby, you're a rich man now
Baby, you're a rich man now
Baby, you're a rich man now

Black and white
Wrong and right at the same time
Black and white
Wrong and right at the same time
Black and white
Wrong and right at the same time
Black and white
Wrong and right at the same time
