Take it to the head feel right
Aint gotta be a cold night
When he leaves you home the green lights on Replace everything you don't like
Started with him can't hit the free throw
I'll be the one to make you scream oh (scream oh)
Girl you don't need no super hero (hero)
Coming to give you my big ego
Your nigga don't last I do it all night (beat it up)
Make you run laps around the world twice
This is how sex is suppose to feel like
Come and get that missing loving girl in your life
Baby put me in when your man's gone (take one for the team)
Beat the walls with the head board (love it when you scream)
If he can't do this and he can't do that
Get a refund bring his ass back

Chorus

I'll be your replacement
I'll be your replacement
Get a refund bring his ass back girl
I'll be your replacement replace place-ment
I'll be your replacement replacement
I'll be your replacement replacement
Bet your man can't do it like this girl
I'll be your replacement replace place-ment

Verse 2

Hit me when he's out the door
You deserve so much more
Put that red dress on that 12 play on
And baby lets leave on the lights
I wanna see you when you heat up
Your man is a loser I'm a winner
Professional he's a beginner
Go around acting like he don't need you
He's on the wall I'm in the party
When your with him it's always foggy
When your with me you're always naughty

He's a honda fit I'm a bugatti
Let me in when your man's gone (take one for the team)
I wanna break (break) the head board (love it when you scream)
If he can't do this and he can't do that
Get a refund bring his ass back

Chorus

I'll be your replacement
I'll be your replacement
Get a refund bring his ass back girl
I'll be your replacement replace place-ment
I'll be your replacement replacement
I'll be your replacement replacement
Bet your man can't do it like this girl
I'll be your replacement replace place-ment

Rap

Baby call a sub we don't do the ex's
He just trying to find a way to fit in tetris
Tell him it's a wrap take an L LEXUS
Screaming though your phone girl you grown that's wreckless
I'll be your replacement
You could be on top I'll play the bottom like a basement
When you out with him your girls wonder where your taste went Groupies at my table damn I wonder where my ace went
That's why I don't chase them
That's why I prefer you over all these other women
Gotta sea of bad bitches I got scuba dive or swim in
It's all about winning and I never lose at nothing
So hears a band-ade for your boyfriend cut him

Chorus

I'll be your replacement
I'll be your replacement
Get a refund bring his ass back girl
I'll be your replacement replace place-ment
I'll be your replacement replacement
I'll be your replacement replacement
Bet your man can't do it like this girl
I'll be your replacement replace place-ment
