"Summer Has Gone"

In the middle of the night
When I'm dreaming of your smile
It's a wonderful emotion
I can feel you by my side

Can't you hear my voice
Is calling loud your name?
Will I find peace of mind?
Do you ever think of me?

Summer has gone
And I am still alive
Winter has come
And I don't want to cry (die)

Summer has gone
And we just said goodbye
Will you bring back
The sunshine in my life

When I walk among the crowd
I keep on looking for your face
If I take a look around
I know this is not my place

Can you hear my voice
Is calling loud your name
I will try to remind
Every little thing you said
