"You walk"

This room, this face,
I'm alone in this goddam place.
You're gone, i'm here,
Who's moving forward, who's feeling guilty?
Where is all the love we had?
Where is all the love we cared?
So i'm supposed to say is simple
You walk away and i'm in this big black hole,
I'm feeling helpless all the time
You walk away and i'm in this big black hole,
I'm feeling helpless all the time
I'm broke, i'm empty,
Your smell is still in this room.
I'm a little monster, waiting for reasons, for reasons
Why do you leave me here alone?
Why do you leave me here alone?
You walk away and i'm in this big black hole,
I'm feeling helpless all the time
You walk away and I'm in this big black hole,
I'm feeling helpless all the time
