So lazy, never wants to work.
Maybe she's too hazy, for sure, not in a hurry.
Happy she looks, happy she'll be as long as she stays lazy as can be.

In any position, she has a disposition.
For pillows and mellows, she just wants to be low, and
so what.
In any position, she has a disposition.
For pillows and mellows, she just wants to be low, and
so what.

Might look crazy, plays it cool and cosy.
You look and she's not there, she's in her sheet,
somewhere.
Moves her hips, it's her trip, stays in bed, she paints her nails in red.

In any position, she has a disposition.
For pillows and mellows, she just wants to be low, and
so what.
In any position, she has a disposition.
For pillows and mellows, she just wants to be low, and
so what.
In any position, she has a disposition, and so what.
For pillows and mellows, she just wants to be low, and
so what.
And so what, and so what, and so what, and so what.

Your sunny, she won't share, your sorrow, she won't bear
If she's fair, all ain't fair, whatever she don't care.
Love wouldn't move, sleep in pills and booze.
Day and night in bed, she is born to snooze.

In any position, she has a disposition, and so what.
For pillows and mellows, she just wants to be low, and
so what.

In any position, she has a disposition.
For pillows and mellows, she just wants to be low, and
so what.
In any position, and so what, she has a disposition.
For pillows and mellows, she just wants to be low, and
so what.
In any position, she has a disposition, and so what.
For pillows and mellows, she just wants to be low.
In any position, she has a disposition, and so what.
For pillows and mellows, she just wants to be low, and
so what.
In any position, she has a disposition, and so what.
For pillows and mellows, she just wants to be low, and
so what.
In any position, and so what, she has a disposition.
For pillows and mellows, she just wants to be low, and
so what.
