The snow was falling down
While she ran around
The dog follow her way
Without so much to say
The cars was looking up
They wish she would stop
She would not say a word
'Cause she was too hurt

She runs and runs away from reality
Looking for one thing that she can't see
She begs and begs for help from the whole world
Would anyone help and save this girl

She sat down on the ground
Feel they stare around
Please put on some clothes
Don't think of what you lose
You can't do this alone
Say that you don't
I don't want you outthere
Please come back here
She runs and runs away from reality
Looking for one thing that she can't see
She beg and beg for help from the whole world
Would anyone stop and save this girl

What have she done to herself
Why not ask for help
You can't do this alone
You shouldn't be on your own
You should scream out loud
And tell everyone how
You should let it stop
You should let it stop

She runs and runs away from reality
Looking for one thing that she can't see
She beg and beg for help from the whole world
Would anyone stop and save this girl
